

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

between the Serbian Geological Society (in Serbian: Srpsko geološko društvo - SGD, Kamenička 6, 11000 Belgrade, Serbia) and the Hungarian Geological Society (in Hungarian: Magyarhoni Földtani Társulat - MFT, 12 Csalogány, 1015 Budapest, Hungary) in order to harmonize their activities in favour of joint and long-term advantages.

The Parties agree that they shall:

1. mutually display data of availability, addresses of official homepages as permanent links on each other's official website.
2. mutually inform each other on their published international professional events (conferences, study tours, etc.), and allow representatives of the other party to take part in such events under the same terms.
3. mutually organize a conference in case of coincidental interests of which expenditures and costs are born upon separate agreement, and benefit from the profits and advantages commonly.
4. raise each other's awareness of available European professional tenders by which – in case of winning such tenders – they can strengthen the financial stability of their events.
5. consult in questions on participation in professional activities of the European Federation of Geologists (EFG).
6. mutually make a stand for enhancing their negotiating power in matters concerning geologic professions at various European forums.
7. mutually exchange each other's printed and electronic publications, at least in one copy, by sending it to the secretary of the other party.
8. make an effort to meet regularly, at least once annually presenting either by the presidents or representatives of their parties in order to evaluate achievements of co-operation and conciliate actions for the next period.
9. – on demand – mutually organize field trips in its own country for the interested of the other party.

The present agreement – as subject to converging wills - today is solemnly signed by the signatory parties.

The present agreement shall commence upon signatures by both parties and be of indefinite duration.

Any party may terminate the present agreement in written form for 6 (six) months due to either loss of interest or breach attributable to the other party.
